LIFEGUARD TRAINING CLASSES

This spring Aquaventure is looking for candidates passionate about aquatics and eager to keep others safe in and around the water. Our American Red Cross lifeguard classes will provide you the skills to supervise pool environments, react appropriately to emergency situations, and provide follow-up care to victims. To qualify for this course you should be in good aquatic physical condition, meaning you swim in a pool regularly with good endurance. A prerequisite skill evaluation is held during the first class and must be completed in order to proceed with the rest of the sessions. Prerequisite evaluation includes:

- 300 yard continuous swim, using front crawl, breaststroke, or a combination of the 2 styles only
- Timed Event (2:00) - tread water using only legs
- Timed Event (1:40) - swim 20 yards, retrieve 10 lb. object, & swim 20 yards back to start

Participants must attend all classes and successfully complete written and physical skill evaluations.
